Please Read Carefully:

School aged children who reside within the Gadsden School District as well as those whose parent or legal guardian is employed by the Gadsden City Board of Education may be registered for the random selection drawing for the school in which they are zoned to attend. For example: Pre-K Students zoned to attend Adams Elementary will register for Adams' Pre-K random selection drawing. After the random selection is held, Pre-K students living outside the Gadsden City School District may register for any available student slots.
