

American Behavioral® Legal and Financial Services

Legal and financial matters can be tough. It can be difficult and time consuming to find an attorney or financial expert to guide you through the questions you have. Legal Access and American Behavioral have a national network of over 17,000 legal and financial experts to help with a wide variety of issues.

As part of your EAP benefits, American Behavioral offers:

Financial Services

- A free 30 minute consultation with a Certified Financial Planner on debt or budgeting, retirement, financial planning and tax questions in person or by phone.
- All financial experts are fully licensed and in good standing with over five years of experience.

Identity Theft Counseling

- Up to three free 30 minute telephonic consultations with an Identity Theft Counselor.
- Complete assistance and direction about reporting identity theft or fraud to the police.
  - Assistance with obtaining your federally mandated free credit reports.

Legal Services

- A free 30 minute consultation with an attorney on a variety of legal matters (excluding employment disputes) by phone or in person.
  - Document review (up to six pages free of charge)
    - Complimentary Simple Will preparation

**Employees are eligible for 25% off attorney's normal hourly rates, and 15% off financial planners standard rates if additional assistance is needed beyond the consultation.*
